

Memorial Foundation for Jewish Culture
Latin American Mini-Nahum Goldmann Fellowship

Tentative Program
Reconfiguring Jewish Identity, Community And Peoplehood
In Latin America

DAY ONE

Sunday, January 27, 2013

3:-00-5:00 pm

Arrival and Registration

5:00-6:00 pm

Opening Session - Orientation

7:30 pm – 9:30 pm

Reshaping the World of our Parents and Grandparents –
Prof. Daniel Fainstein

9:30 pm

Discussion Groups On Lecture

DAY TWO

Monday, January 28, 2013

9:00 am -12:00 pm

Discussion Groups I

Re-Configuring Jewish Identity and Community in Latin America -The Extent to Which They Can Provide Meaning for Us as Individuals and Holds us Together as a People

1:00 pm

Workshops

Text Study – Prof. Daniel Fainstein and Other Local Teachers

7:30 – 9:30 pm

Lecture – Toward a Vision of Jewish Peoplehood: A
Diaspora Perspective – Prof. Saul Berman

9:30 pm

Discussion Groups On Lecture

DAY THREE

Tuesday, January 29, 2013

9:00 am -12:00 pm

Discussion Groups II

Re-Configuring Jewish Peoplehood in Latin America – The Extent to Which it Can Provide Meaning for Us as Individuals and Hold us Together as a People

1:00 pm

Workshops

Text Study – Prof. Daniel Fainstein and Other Local Teachers

3:00 pm

Plenary Session
Where Do We Go From Here

7:00 pm - 9:00 pm

Workshop

Meeting of Selected Fellows with Leaders of Brazilian
Jewish Community